

TAIPEI MEDICAL COLLEGE TWENTY YEARS' CALENDER

1958

April 24 — The Ministry of Education was asked for the permission of the establishing of a private co-educational medical institute by Hu Shui-wang, M.D., Yon-chie Cheung, Hsu Chien-tien, M.D., Yin-Kian Chuen, Kuo Tsung-huan, M.D. And the school name was proposed as Taipei Medical College.

1959

June 25 — The establishing of Taipei Medical College, here on refer to as TMC, was approved by the Executive Yuen and a Committee of Arrangement was founded at 70, Han Kow St., Taipei.

July 28 — The proposed campus at Kwang Fu Rd. was changed to San- Cheug-Li which covered an area of 81,879 square metres.

Sept. 8 — The Board of Directors was founded consisting of fifteen members, Hu Shui-wang, M.D. was elected Chairman of the Board of Directors and Hsu Chien-tien, M.D. as the President of the College.

1960

June 1 — The registration of the school was approved by the Ministry of Education and started to enroll students by the 1960-61 school year.

June 11 — The second meeting of the Board of Directors of the College was held today and SINCERE deo FRUGAL (誠樸) was chosen as the motto of the College.

Aug. 30 — Enrollment of Freshman.

A total number of 205 students were enrolled of which 50 were for medicine, 51 were for dentistry and 104 were for pharmacy.

1963

Sept. 13 — A five-year Junior College of Nursing and Midwifery and a five-year Night School of Pharmacy were approved by the Ministry of Education and started to enroll students for the 1963-64 school year.

1964

Feb. 23 — The annual meeting of the Association of Obstetrics and Gynecology (R.O.C.) was held in the Morphology Building today. The meeting carried on successfully after an opening address by Dr. Ber-Tian Wai Chairman of the Association.

Nov. 12 — The annual meeting of the Formosan Medical Association was held in the Main Building today. Specialists from Japan, U.S.A., and the Philippines were invited to present special lectures. About two thousand doctors participated.

1965

July 18 — A five-year Junior College of Medical Technology was approved by the Ministry of Education. And would start to enroll students by the school year 1965-66.

1966

- June 28— 228 students graduated from three departments of which 126 students were granted Bachelor of Medicine, 9 were granted Bachelor of Dental Science and 93 were granted Bachelor of Pharmacology.

1970

- June 1— Today was the tenth anniversary of the college. The celebrating ceremony commenced by 9:00 a.m. together with the first overall Sports Day of the college. In addition, a grand bazaar was being held on the campus.
- Old boys and girls of the college tonight gathered at Chun San Hall to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the college. Mean while, the College's Alumnus Association was established.

1973

- Aug. 1— Mr. Hvang Chin-Chiang, M.D., former Superintendent of the Taipei Municipal Ho Ping Hospital was invited to be the President of the College. The inauguration ceremony was held today.

1975

- March 24— The Ministry of Education approved the setting up of a School of Medical Technology in TMC.

1976

- Feb. 16— The Board of Directors officially invited Professor Wan-Tsui Tsan, Head of the Urology Department in National Taiwan University Hospital to be the Superintendent of TMC Hospital.
- Aug. 1— Completion of the TMC Hospital. The outpatient clinic was opened to the public today.

1977

- May — The Ministry of Education approved the set up of School of Nursing in TMC. Enrollment of students for this new curriculum started in the 1977 school year.
- Aug. 1— Dr. Liao Yine-Lung, Chairman of Studies of the College, was invited as the superintendent of the College Hospital.

1978

- Nov. 8— The Board of Directors officially invited Mr. Milton M.S. Shieth, M.D., to be the new President of TMC.
- Nov. 15— The Board of Directors officially invited Dr. Donald Lau to take over responsibility as the Superintendent of TMC Hospital.

1979

- March 22— The Ministry of Education approved the set up of the School of Nutrition and Health Science in TMC. Enrollment of students for this curriculum started in the 1979 school year.
- Dec. 16— 12th Scientific meeting of the Chinese Society of Microbiology was held in TMC today.

1980

- March 23— Celebration of the 20th Anniversary. A grand bazaar was being held on campus. Vice President of the Republic of China, Mr. Tung-Men Sheith, was cordially invited as the guest of honour.